

GANG MEMBERS... DRUG DEALERS... KILLERS FOR HIRE

San Manuel casino plagued by criminal tribal members and Inland gangsters

“One of Southern California’s busiest Indian casinos is plagued by criminal tribal members and Inland gangsters... According to former tribal employees, court documents and internal tribal documents.

Those sources say the member Members of the San Manuel Band of Mission Indians, some with connections to criminal gangs such as the Mexican Mafia, aren’t governed by the same rules as other patrons.”

~ Michelle DeArmond
Press Enterprise newspaper

THE SUN
San Bernardino County's Newspaper

Brother and sister San Manuel tribal members get probation in assassination plot

by Joe Nelson

“Two wealthy San Manuel tribal members who helped orchestrate a murder plot were sentenced Thursday to electronic monitoring and five years of supervised probation.”

CASINO BOSS JAMES RAMOS AND THE MEXICAN MAFIA

JAMES RAMOS' CASINO IS A HAVEN FOR CRIMINALS

Now He Wants To Be Our County Supervisor?

Investigators for the U.S. Drug Enforcement Agency believe the Mexican Mafia has infiltrated the San Manuel Reservation and is extorting money from tribal members who receive $100,000 checks from casino profits each month.

[source: United States Drug Enforcement Agency]

San Manuel Tribal members who engage in criminal behavior at the Casino and on the Reservation are rarely punished or even arrested. "We know who could push us around," said one former casino safety officer.

[source: Tribal Watch newsletter and Press Enterprise newspaper]

Residents living around the San Manuel Casino have complained about drug activity, prostitution, reckless driving and even casino patrons relieving themselves in the front yards of local homes.

[source: San Bernardino Sun newspaper]

CASINO BOSS JAMES RAMOS

Don't Let Him Ruin Your Community!